

The company, Electronic Excellence Ltd (EELtd) acknowledges the provisions of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within its organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the organisation.

EELtd is committed to acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships. The Company is satisfied from its own due diligence there is no evidence of any act of modern day slavery or human trafficking within its own organisation. EELtd deals only with reputable brands with similar ethical values and will continue to review our contractual arrangements with our suppliers to ensure that everyone is aware that they are obliged to comply with the Modern Slavery Act.

All Staff within EELtd receive no less than the National Living Wage (NLW) as prescribed by the UK Government and the company apply immigration checks for all current and new employees.

This Policy takes into account, and supports, the policies, procedures and requirements documented in our Integrated Management System, compliant with the requirements of ISO 9001 and the Investors in People standards. The implementation and operation of this management system underlines our commitment to this policy.

Our Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking policy will be reviewed on a regular basis by, or on behalf of, the Managing Director.

Jonathan Rountree
Managing Director EELtd